

Kiltwalk 2019

We are excited to launch 'Don Yer Kilt', the SOHTIS Kiltwalk 2019 campaign.

The Kiltwalk is now a well-established event on the Scottish fundraising calendar, and last year helped 1,000 Scottish charities raise more than £5 million. We hope it will prove an excellent opportunity for SOHTIS and in doing so raise funds to provide quality services for the survivors of human trafficking in Scotland.

We believe that everyone deserves to live in freedom with dignity and respect, we would love you to join our Team SOHTIS and help us raise vital funds and awareness of trafficking in Scotland. Here is some information about the Kiltwalk, which we hope will answer any of your questions, you can find out more on their website <https://www.thekiltwalk.co.uk/>. Please get if we can help you further.

What is the Kiltwalk?

The Kiltwalk is a series of fun and friendly fundraising events which take place across the summer. There are four different Kiltwalk events in Scotland in 2019:

Glasgow on April 28th
Aberdeen on June 2nd
Dundee on August 18th
Edinburgh on September 15th

There is something for everyone:

a shorter walk of 5 or 6 miles
a mid-length walk of between 11-15.5 miles
a longer walk of between 23-26 miles

The Kiltwalk is not a race and therefore an inclusive event, which allows walkers of all abilities to participate. This includes wheelchairs, prams, pushchairs and baby strollers; you can even bring your four-legged friends!

Cost

Depending on which length participants choose to walk, registration costs vary between £12 and £30. The SOHTIS Team are offering the first three spaces at each event FREE of charge, you will also receive a SOHTIS T-Shirt and other merchandise as well as support and encouragement as you prepare for your registered event.

Registration

In order that we can support you, we would love to hear from you when you are planning to register, please contact our team on enquiries@sohtis.org. You can officially register for the event at Kiltwalk 2019, spaces are limited to so don't leave it too late!

Funds Raised

The amazing thing about the Kiltwalk is that 100% of the money raised by people who take part goes to their chosen charity – as well as an additional 40% top up, donated by the Hunter Foundation. So if you raise £100 for SOHTIS, it would mean we actually receive £140!

The funds you raise at this event will go directly to a wonderful new programme we are developing to encourage, enable and empower survivors of human trafficking in Scotland as they rebuild their lives. This project will be based in Edinburgh and provide accommodation, training and employment opportunities and holistic wellbeing support. Your funding will help us provide everything survivors will need to make their stay in our accommodation comfortable and conducive to their empowerment. Of course as well as helping to raise money, it's also a great fun day together as Team SOHTIS and an opportunity to raise our profile.

We hope you are inspired to join our Team for one of these events or for some of our other fundraising activities, follow us on Facebook and Twitter to find out about other opportunities to get involved!
